Third Sunday of Easter

“I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.”

-- Psalm 30

Thank you for attending Mass with us today.

Monsignor Michael Reed, Father Richard Chamber and the St. Rose of Lima parish family welcome visitors and new members. If you are not currently a registered member and wish to be, please contact the parish office, or complete the form on the front of this bulletin and drop it in the collection basket.

Today's Readings

First Reading -- Brought before the Sanhedrin, the apostles give witness to Jesus Christ (Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41).

Psalm -- I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).

Second Reading -- In his vision John sees all in heaven and on earth give honor and glory to the one on the throne and to the Lamb (Revelation 5:11-14).

Gospel -- Jesus appears to the disciples by the sea of Tiberias (John 21:1-19 [1-14]).

Pilgrimage to the Basilica of
St. Michael the Archangel,
Pensacola

Saturday, May 21, 2016

Please mark your calendars now for our pilgrimage! We will meet at St. Rose for a light breakfast, then board the bus for the drive to the Basilica of St. Michael, where we will be greeted by Fr. Joseph Callipare. There will be a presentation on the Jubilee Year of Mercy and Indulgences by Fr. Joseph Fowler, and then we'll have the opportunity for confession and to pass through the Basilica's Holy Doors, which provides a plenary indulgence for those who are properly disposed. We will enjoy lunch afterwards at Piccadilly Restaurant, then board the bus for the drive back to St. Rose to attend 4 pm Mass.

Registration is required to attend, and will open soon. Please check back periodically for more information.

REDEMPTION

Do you remember Peter on the night Jesus was arrested? He claimed he had never heard of Jesus. Today we are called to join Peter in testifying to the name of Jesus as he does in the first reading, and in proclaiming our love for him as Peter does in the Gospel passage. The powerful imagery of John's vision in the second reading from the book of Revelation shows us the company we keep when we have faith in the name of Jesus. We join all living creatures, "countless in number" from "heaven, earth, under the earth, in the sea; everything in the universe" (Revelation 5:11, 13). The dignity and majesty described in each reading are in stark contrast to the dark and pitiful image of Peter and the other apostles at the time of Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. What a relief that we can all be redeemed so completely!

Altar Flowers

The beautiful flower decorations on the altar this weekend were donated in honor of the marriage of Noelle and Alex Strevig.

Stewardship Reflection

There is much to digest (literally) in today's Gospel reading from St. John. It reports the third time that Jesus appeared to His Apostles. The Lord appears on the shore of the Sea of Tiberias, which is another name by which the Sea of Galilee is known. It is early in the morning, and Peter and the others had been fishing unsuccessfully, and obviously were near to the shore, but at Jesus' urging they cast their nets again and caught many fish, which they then brought to shore.

According to the Gospel, Jesus had breakfast with them, and then He poses the question to Peter specifically, "Do you love me? The exchange between the Lord and Peter is carefully narrated, as are Jesus' responses. However, at the end of the Gospel reading for today, Jesus says two simple words to Peter, "Follow Me." Of course, these are the same two words with which we are familiar that Jesus used to call Peter and the others in the beginning.

We need to understand that these instructions from Jesus are not just for the Apostles but for us a well. How have we responded to that call? Our reaction does not have to be as dramatic as Peter's and the others, who abandoned their lives and their livelihood and became total followers of Christ. However, we, too, need to find the strength and the commitment to follow the Lord. How we carry that out is our stewardship, how we live our lives.

Wacky Bingo

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be observed on Sunday, April 17th, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday". The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes.

Assistance for Victims of Abuse

WHO'S COMING FOR BREAKFAST?

After providing a catch none of us could accomplish, Jesus offers an intimacy any of us can provide: "Come, have breakfast." Revelation's heavenly liturgy envisions a community "countless in number." So the "one hundred fifty-three fish," Saint Jerome suggests, equals the Mediterranean's full number of species--the Gospel's way of asserting that the Church must have room for everyone. Peter drags that full net to Jesus, keeping it safe and not torn. Pope Francis calls this unity our "reconciled diversity." How appropriate to live Saint Augustine's timeless ideal, especially during this Jubilee Year of Mercy: "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, diversity; in all things, charity." After their breakfast, Jesus does not ask Peter to profess his faith again, to confess his sin again, or even to apologize again for his denial. Jesus asks Peter to declare his love. So may our work in union with the risen Jesus be fruitful, our community inclusive, our love selfless, our mercy boundless, and our witness faithful--even unto death. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co.
