A SEASON OF HOPE

Today we can bask in the imagery that the Mass readings offer us. In particular, Isaiah's vision of a parched land that blooms with abundant flowers holds a message for each of us. Too often we are just like that parched land. We can allow ourselves to become absorbed in the waves of consumerism that grip so many. We look for fulfillment in the things that money can buy. Unfortunately, this leaves us like parched land, thirsting for something that money can't buy. This holy season has much to offer to quench our thirsts. In a word, this season offers hope. We are told that those who are ransomed by God will know joy and gladness. For them, sorrow and mourning will be no more. Let us place our hope in these promises. Copyright (c) J. S. The O Antiphons

As Christmas draws near, the Church traditionally prays these verses highlighting the ways Jesus fulfills Old Testament prophecy. We begin December 17 with "O Wisdom on High" and end December 23 with "O Emmanuel". The full texts of these verses can be found in any missalette. You might pray them before a meal or in the evening, perhaps around the Advent Wreath in the eight days leading up to Christmas.

Every two years we come together as a diocese to celebrate the joy and beauty of our Catholic faith.

You are invited to join us as we dive deeper into what it means to live out our vocations, whether to religious life, married life or single life. A variety of speakers and panelists will share their wisdom and insight on how to joyfully live our vocation in whatever stage of life we currently find ourselves, and how we can grow in holiness within it. All are invited, and families are encouraged to attend together.
